

Saint Peter Julian Eymard

Peter Julian Eymard loved the Eucharist. As a priest in France in the 1800s, he founded the Congregation of the Blessed Sacrament. The members of the congregation worked hard to spread love of the Eucharist to everyone. They believed that by receiving Holy Communion together, they could grow in love as a community. Pope John XXIII named Peter Julian Eymard a saint in 1962 because of his great love for the Eucharist. His feast day is August 1.

Thank You, Jesus

Take a moment to think about the Blessed Sacrament. Write a prayer to thank Jesus for sharing himself in the Eucharist. Tell him how you will thank him with your life.

Handwriting lines for the prayer response, consisting of 14 horizontal lines.

