

Name _____

Date _____

Remembering the Trinity

The love of the Trinity—the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit—is the source of the love we have for one another. We remember the Trinity when we pray the Glory Be to the Father. We praise God for being God, who created our world.

Let Us Praise God

Close your eyes for a moment and silently pray the Glory Be to the Father. Think about the words. Then complete the activities.

A. Draw lines to connect the parts of each sentence below.

- | | |
|----------------------|---|
| 1. God the Father ● | ● a. helps us share God's love with others. |
| 2. Jesus Christ ● | ● b. created all things. |
| 3. The Holy Spirit ● | ● c. reveals God and redeems us. |

B. Write a sentence praising God for something special at each of the times mentioned below.

1. God has been with us since the beginning of time.

2. God is with us now in everything we do.

3. God will be with us forever.

