Doubting Thomas

When Jesus appeared to the apostles after rising from his tomb, one of them, Thomas, didn't believe he was really seeing Jesus. Jesus understood and told Thomas that he could touch Jesus. Thomas did so, and he believed immediately. This was really Jesus, risen from the dead! Thomas couldn't wait to join the other apostles in telling everyone the Good News!

Jesus Has Risen!

Imagine that you are one of the apostles. You have been very sad over losing Jesus. But now you see him, and you are overjoyed! Below write a letter to a friend, telling him or her about Jesus. Be sure to tell your friend how seeing Jesus made you feel.

Dear _____,

I have to tell you what happened today!

I believe!
