

Jesus' Parables

Throughout his public ministry, Jesus told stories, or parables, to help teach people about God's kingdom. Some of the parables he told include the forgiving father, the lost sheep, and the Good Samaritan. These parables teach us how we can put Jesus' new commandment into practice.

Write a Parallel Parable

On the lines below, write a modern parable that teaches others about the Kingdom of God. In your parable focus on God's love and forgiveness.
