Moral Choices

Making good moral choices is one way for us to grow in our relationship with God and with one another.

Qua and Angela, two fourth graders, are talking while walking to school.

Qua: I went to a birthday party over the weekend, and I didn't have time to study for the test today. I'm not ready!

Angela: I am! I spent all weekend studying.

Qua: I wish that I felt as confident about the test as you do.

Angela: You know, we sit next to each other. I could help you cheat.

Qua: How?

Angela: I can just angle my paper so that you can see my answers.

Qua: My parents will be mad at me if I fail.

Finish the Conversation

On a separate sheet of paper, finish the conversation between the two friends. How does Qua respond to Angela's offer? Did she give in to temptation? How might Qua avoid this temptation in the future?
