Blessed Are They

Jesus teaches us that we can have a happy life by practicing the Beatitudes. When we choose to live out the Beatitudes, we share God's love with others and build up his kingdom.

Write New Beatitudes

On the parchment below, write eight additional beatitudes. You may wish to use the following ideas to help you get started.

Blessed are . . .

they who welcome new students.

they who help injured animals.

they who teach others.

they who farm the land.

they who help people who are ill.

they who stand up to bullies.

they who help people who are elderly.
