

The Beatitudes

Keep these ideas in mind as you study Unit 2, Session 7.

In a Scripture passage from Matthew's Gospel, called the Sermon on the Mount, Jesus told his listeners how to live so that they could be happy. These teachings are called the Beatitudes.

PAGE 40

People who are poor in spirit know they can depend on God first.

PAGE 41

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

PAGE 41

The meek are people who are kind to others. They will inherit the land.

PAGE 41

The clean of heart are those who always try to follow Jesus' example. They will see God.

PAGE 41

People who are righteous do the right thing, even when it is difficult.

PAGE 41

We can be peacemakers by trying to get along with others.

PAGE 41

People who are merciful forgive one another. When we exchange a sign of peace at Mass, we show our willingness to forgive others.

PAGE 41

Saint Francis of Assisi always tried to follow Jesus' example. He asked God to help him make peace in the world by being a peacemaker.

PAGE 42

Saint Jerome translated the Bible from Greek into Latin, a more commonly known language at the time. Saint Jerome is often shown with a lion, due to the legend that he removed a thorn from a lion's paw.

ART PRINT 7

For more games, activities, and resources related to Finding God, please visit www.findinggod.com.