

God Saves Us

Keep these ideas in mind as you study Unit 1, Session 2.

The contradictory nature of the human condition is that we are basically good but have a tendency to sin or do wrong.

PAGE 10

To explain human weakness, the Book of Genesis tells the story of Adam and Eve, the parents of the human race. Their sin, which resulted in Original Sin, damaged the human family. As a result, we are inclined to do wrong.

PAGE 10

In one of his letters, Saint Paul tells how sin came into the world. He describes the promise of a Savior in another letter. Victory over sin and death comes from Jesus, who reconciles us to God.

Josephine Bakhita is a saint from Sudan, in northeastern Africa. She overcame suffering by holding onto her faith.

PAGE 11

Paul described the promise of Salvation in his letters to early Christian churches.

PAGE 11

It is not always easy to do the right thing.

PAGE 12

Imagining that we are with Jesus when he is speaking to a crowd is a form of prayer.

PAGE 12

We have a responsibility to love one another and to treat one another fairly.

PAGE 13

When we confess our sins, we are forgiven and are able to start anew. Each day is an opportunity to do our best, to be courageous, to defend those who are weak, and to be more like Jesus.
