

Growing in Holiness

Keep these ideas in mind as you study Unit 5, Session 23.

When we act morally, we reflect Jesus, become his witnesses in the world, and participate in the plan for Salvation.

PAGE 136

We learn and live the moral life first in the domestic church, which is our family.

PAGE 136

We can show our parents obedience and respect by doing what we are told.

PAGE 136

We act morally at school when we follow the rules, respect our teachers, and share with our friends.

PAGE 136

God tells us to make and keep ourselves holy because he is holy.

PAGE 136

To live a moral life, we need to respect our bodies and ourselves.

PAGE 137

Chastity is the practice that helps us unite our physical sexuality with our spiritual nature. It involves respecting our bodies and the bodies of others.

PAGE 137

Saint Paul tells us that our bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit.

PAGE 138

Kateri Tekakwitha was the first Native American to be declared blessed. Kateri was born in Auriesville, New York, the same place where Saint Isaac Jogues was martyred.

ART PRINT 23

For more games, activities, and resources related to Finding God, please visit www.findinggod.com.