The Work of the Kingdom

Jesus is challenging us today to do the work of the kingdom. To serve the kingdom, we are called to act in certain ways.

Doing the Work of the Kingdom

Reread Matthew 25:31–46. Then read the situations below. Which of the following actions that Jesus names is described in each situation? Write it on the line.

1. Jessica invites a new student to her birthday party even though she doesn't know this student well.

2. Savitá prepares bag lunches for her parish's lunch program for people who are homeless.

3. Brian is a volunteer at a children's hospital. Once a week he goes there and spends time with some of the residents. He knows that they are worried and long to be cheered up. Sometimes he reads to them. Sometimes he plays games with them. Sometimes he just sits and talks with them.

4. Daryl and his brother spend the morning going through their drawers and closets to find clothes that they have outgrown. They take these clothes to a local homeless shelter.

5. Write an example from your own life, showing how you perform one or more of the Corporal Works of Mercy.
