

Exploring Sign Language

American Sign Language is a special language. It uses movements of the hands for words. Sign language allows a person to communicate by using gestures.

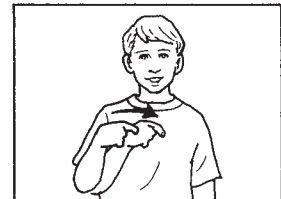

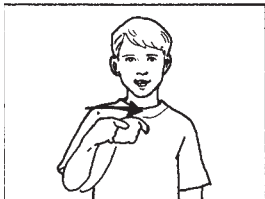

Directions: Use sign language to make the sentences below with a partner.

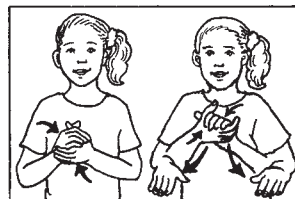

I am a student.

We are friends.

I love God.

I want peace.

Can you guess the meaning of this sentence? Write it on the line.

