Meet Amos

The prophet Amos prophesied in the northern kingdom during the decades just before the Assyrian conquest. He criticized the king of Israel for not helping poor people and for turning away from the God of Israel in favor of Canaanite gods.

Imagine This!

You have been asked to review Amos's credentials and decide whether he would be a good person to have working with your parish for two months. Read the following passages from the Book of Amos: 2:6–8, 5:10–15, and 9:14–15.

Amos in Your Parish

Complete the exercises below.

1. Describe Amos's attitude using the passages you read.

2. Summarize Amos's message in two or three sentences.

3. What role would you recommend Amos to take on in your parish?

4. Why would you make this recommendation?
