

The Greatest Virtue

The apostle Paul gave us a moving description of love in his first letter to the Church in Corinth. Paul had established a Christian community in Corinth, but he knew that the people of Corinth were arguing and not acting like Christians. Read 1 Corinthians 13.

The Greatest Virtue

Complete the lists below. Then choose two phrases from each list and write about examples of actions that demonstrate what love is and what love is not. Use the back of this page if you need more room.

Find and list the phrases that describe what love is and does.

Find and list the phrases that describe the attitudes and actions that are not love.
