Living the Ten Commandments

Directions: For each action write the number of the commandment to which it relates. More than one answer may be correct. Write yes if the action follows the commandment. Write no if the action does not. This first one is done for you.

Number	Yes/No
1	yes	1. Listening to the homily during Mass on Sunday and thinking about how it applies to your life
		2. Talking back to your parents when they tell you not to do something
		3. Tearing out a page from a library book because you need the information for a report
		4. Laughing at a classmate who gave a wrong answer in class and saying that person is stupid
		5. Telling your parents you have a lot of homework so you can get out of doing chores, when actually you chatted online with friends
		6. Looking for faults in a friend's new bike because you are jealous that yours isn't as nice
		7. Asking for permission from your parents to attend a class party
		8. Praying the Morning Offering every morning
		9. Copying a friend's math homework
		10. Admitting that you didn't do your homework and not making any excuses
