

Laws That Work For All Time

God gave Moses and the Israelites the Ten Commandments to use as a guide to live a moral life. Jesus followed the Ten Commandments and encouraged others to follow them. These rules are a reminder for us to continue living according to the Covenant that God made with Israelites. They help us maintain a close relationship with God and with all the people in our lives.

Living the Commandments

Read the Ten Commandments on page 49. Choose two commandments to write about. Copy each commandment in the spaces provided and then write your own thoughts about that commandment.

1. Commandment _____

What this commandment means to me: _____

2. Commandment _____

What this commandment means to me: _____
