

The Universal Prayer
The 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 15, 2017

Presider:

God has offered us everything: hope and salvation in Christ Jesus. Let us rejoice in that knowledge and so strengthened offer our prayers for the good of all.

Reader:

For the Church as she invites us to the fullness of the banquet of the Lord: may we run to her embrace and the bounty of the Lord.

For our world on this 100th anniversary of the last appearance of our Lady of Fatima to the children, Lucia, Jacinta and Francisco: in a time of continuing danger, may we pray, as she asked, for the peace of the world.

For our nation and especially for the loss of life and homes due to the wildfires in California: may our prayers bring comfort to everyone affected.

For ourselves: that faithful to the Gospel we may live in the house of the Lord all our days.

For everyone living with spiritual, physical or emotional burdens, especially Horace Ricks, Irene Busher, Rose Miniere, Lynn Bradley, Pam Apisa, Tony Arcuri, Bob DeMair, Bruce Peck and Raymond Stives: may our prayers for their well-being rise like incense before the throne of God.

- 1. For our blessed dead, especially Bernadette Carrano, and *N., whom we remember at this mass.

*Sat. 5:0PM.....Ian Boegel

*Sun...9:00AM...Domenico Simeone and Ruth Mary Watkins

*Sun...1:00....Elisa Petraskiewicz

For the prayers in our parish book of life and for all the hopes and fears we keep in our hearts: that God who knows our hearts will dispel all fear and renew us in hope.

Presider:

*Generous God, you lavish your bounty on your people. Your Holy Spirit bids us ask for your mercy and blessing in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
